

State EE/RE Technical Forum

Call #3 – Measurement & Verification & Implications for Quantifying EE Emissions Impacts

December 16, 2004

2 -3:30 PM

Forum Overview	Keystone	5 minutes
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Goal of the Call - Ground rules and procedures
Overview of Topic: M&V approaches and quantifying emissions impacts	PQA	5 minutes
New York's 3rd Party M&V	Larry Pakenas	10 minutes
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - What are the advantages of 3rd party M&V? (costs, implementation, time & oversight) - What are the policy drivers for quantifying the emissions impacts of documented energy savings or RE generation? - How does 3rd party M&V improve your program's success? 	NY State Energy Research & Development Authority
Questions & Discussion		20 minutes
Experience of Other States	CA, TX, NJ, IN, Others	20 minutes
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - What programs/objectives are driving your choice of M&V approaches? - What are the tradeoffs between cost and accuracy? - How has quantification of emissions impacts influenced your choice of M&V? - What is the response of stakeholders about level of M&V required? Too much? Too little?
Discussion		25 minutes
Review of Schedule and Topics of Future Calls		5 minutes